Any Offer shall be considered accepted by the Principal whether such acceptance was express or implied, and whether in writing, by telephone, by any means of electronic or instant messaging, or deemed accepted by the start of performance of Services by the Company.

1.3. The Agreement supersedes all prior discussions and agreements with respect to the performance of Services, as well as any terms which the Principal may purport to impose in relation to the performance of the Services.

1.4. The Company may provide various Services, including but not limited to the following: testing, inspection, certification, laboratory analyses, sampling, verification of conformity, customized technology and software solutions, factory inspections, supplier and other customised audits, assurance services, advisory and training services, always as further specified in the Offer or as per applicable program instructions of a national or international body/ authority (herein the "Program").

2.2. The Principal acknowledges that the Company may, at its discretion, assign or subcontract all or part of the performance of the Services to affiliates, agents and/or subcontractors and provide all such necessary information to the same. In case of such assignment, references to the Company herein shall extend to the assignee as applicable.

2.3. The Company will use reasonable efforts in meeting delivery and turnaround times stated in the Offer, but such times are estimates and do not constitute a commitment by the Company. Unless expressly agreed by the parties, time is not of the essence.

2.4. The Principal undertakes (i) to provide all necessary instructions, specifications and precise information in a timely manner to enable the Company to perform the Services. Any documents reflecting undertakings entered into between the Principal and third parties or third-party documents such as test reports, sales contracts, letters of credit, and bills of lading, even when provided to the Company, shall not be part of the Agreement, unless expressly specified and acknowledged in the Offer; (ii) to provide the necessary access to buildings, plants, warehouses, carriers of any kind, or any other place, as well as special equipment and assistance, if necessary, to enable the Company to perform the Services in the requested timeframe; (iii) to ensure that all adequate measures will be taken for the safety of employees and representatives of the Company during performance of the Services; (iv) to promptly take all necessary measures to ensure that no obstruction prevents the Company from performing the Services; (v) to inform the Company in advance of all the known and/or suspected risks or dangers of whatever nature, present or future, linked to all orders, samples or tests requests, including but not limited to the presence or risk of radiation, toxic substances, harmful or explosive materials and pollution; and (vi) to fulfil all its obligations under the terms of any contract with third parties relating to the Services performed by the Company.

2.5. When the Company is asked to attest to the intervention of a third party, the scope of Services shall be limited to being present at the time of the intervention of the third party or, as the case may be, to reviewing documents attesting to such third-party intervention and communicating the results of the intervention, or confirming that it took place. When Services are performed in relation to a contractual counterpart of the Principal, in particular if a Deliverable (as defined in clause 3.1) will be provided as per clause 3.3, the Principal shall cause such counterpart to acknowledge the terms of the Agreement prior to performance of the Services.

Further, the Company shall not be liable for any deterioration or loss of sample material kept in the Company's custody.
